Asia Week in Paris | 3– 12 June 2026

9th edition

ASIA WEEK PARIS

Since 2018, Printemps Asiatique Paris has helped Paris become the epicentre of Asian art uniting a shared calendar of gallery exhibitions across the capital, auction sales, private viewings, conferences, and an art fair held at the Pagoda, a historic and mythical venue devoted to the excellence of Asian arts.

Each June, Paris opens its doors to collectors, connoisseurs, and the public alike, to discover, learn, and acquire the most remarkable works, in a vibrant dialogue between heritage and modernity, where the traditions of Asia converse with the creative energy of today's art world.

renowned Chinese art dealer and collector Ching Tsai Loo (1880-1957), better known as C. T. Loo. Since 2022, the Pagoda has welcomed French and international dealers for a collective exhibition held as part of Printemps Asiatique Paris.

Each June, the celebrated Pagoda on Rue de Courcelles opens its doors to once again embrace the spirit of the place. Known to Asian art enthusiasts around the world, this architectural jewel of Chinese inspiration, nestled in the heart of the Haussmannian district of Plaine Monceau, was once the mythical gallery of the

HIGHLIGHTS

The latest edition of Printemps Asiatique Paris united a growing number of galleries across the capital, shaping a refined itinerary dedicated to Asian art at the heart of the city.

A shared opening night, open to all, brought a unique energy and vibrancy to Asian art and the participating galleries - an experience we look forward to renewing with the 9th edition, opening on Wednesday, June 3, 2025.

New participants included A2Z Art Gallery, Yann Ferrandin, and Frédéric Rond.

A rich Cultural Programme

A Living Dialogue with Leading Institutions

Designed to offer visitors a complete experience, the cultural programme features each year a series of private visits to museum collections, galleries, and the reserves of partner institutions.

It also includes expert workshops, public talks, and international symposiums, fostering meaningful exchanges between scholars, curators, art professionals, and the wider public.

Gala at Musée Guimet

An International
Networking Event
Dedicated to Asian Art

As a key institutional partner of Printemps Asiatique Paris, the Musée national des arts asiatiques – Guimet hosts an exclusive gala bringing together leading figures from the art world.

Around 200 guests including gallerists, collectors, curators, and museum directors gather for an evening devoted to dialogue and exchange.

This prestigious event fosters international networking and reinforces the shared commitment to promoting Asian art in Paris and beyond.
